ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE

RESOLUTION

Date: 07/12/2022

The meeting starts with the reading out of the minutes of the previous meeting.

The members of the committee unanimously decided that the key to smooth and healthy student environment against ragging lies in the inter-relationship between freshers' (1st yr.) and the senior students (2nd & 3rd yr.). The committee agrees upon strengthening their relationship by arranging orientation programme for the 1st year students.

The members of the committee also felt that the students are needed to be educated and made aware of the forms and evil of ragging. Thus, they proposed to organise an awareness camp for ragging, which the convenor madam and the principal sir enthusiastically agreed.

As no such complaint of ragging was received, the convenor decided to end the meeting by again reiterating the measures to be followed in case of coming across any compliant of ragging.

Principal Dr. Jayanta kr. Mukherjee thanked all the members for their invaluable opinions and observations on the matter and declared the end of the meeting.
