Our college is affiliated to the University of Burdwan since 2013. The college discharges its functions as per rules and regulations of The University of Burdwan and amended from time to time and instructions/orders issued by Directorate of Higher Education, Government of West Bengal.

Mission

Driven by a comprehensive vision, the institution is dedicated to fostering academic advancement through cutting-edge undergraduate programs, as well as advocating for elevated standards in teaching, learning, critical analysis, professional conduct, and integrity. Our aim is to enhance students' academic aspirations and achievements. As architects of the nation's future, the committed faculty of the college aspire to nurture future leaders and actively participate in the nation-building endeavor. The college intends not only to cultivate educated individuals but also emphasizes the continual enhancement of faculty, student, and staff in a sustainable, gender-inclusive environment conducive to attracting talented individuals and students from varied social backgrounds. The college aims to promote not only academic education but also moral and spiritual development, thereby equipping students intellectually and culturally for comprehensive personal growth. Many students of our college hail from underprivileged backgrounds, with a majority being first-generation learners. Therefore, the institution is committed to providing quality education by fostering a conducive teaching-learning environment and offering tailored support for holistic development, empowering students to become self-sufficient and actualize their aspirations.

Vision

The vision of our college is to deliver education rooted in values and excellence to every learner, fostering holistic development. We aspire to illuminate all segments of society with the beacon of knowledge, offering quality education to foster the growth of responsible citizens, ethical individuals, proficient professionals, and enlightened scholars. Through our commitment, we aim to make meaningful contributions to India and the global community across various domains of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences. The college strives to impact lives and communities by embracing and sharing knowledge. Rooted in principles of inclusivity, equality, quality, and innovation, it is dedicated to creating a student-centered environment and fostering educational opportunities that inspire and facilitate the teaching-learning process.
